LOCAL JOTS.

The First District Court will convene at Ogden next Monday.
Henry Sadler Jr., returned from an extended trip throughout California last evening.

A grand rehearsal of the Paper Carnival will be held at the Walker Opera House this evening.

The corpse of a child of the name of Leverage was brought up from Provo to-day for interment.

Wells, Fargo & Co. to-day shipped one valued at $23,800; base bullion, $2,180. Total, $25,980.

The delay of the Central Pacific yesterday was owing to a landslide in Blue Canyon. No damage was done.

McCormick & Co. to-day received Hannan bullion valued at $1,755; silver and lead ores, $8,800. Total, $10,555.

James Fakes, of Nephi, dropped dead of heart disease at Riverside, yesterday. He leaves a wife and seven children.

Henry Wagner has the hearts of the entire Democrat force tacked on top of a keg of his excellent beer. Many thanks.

The D. & R. Western will begin their Bingham excursion on Sunday next. Tickets for the round trip will be $1.50.

In the Probate Court, yesterday, in the matter of the estate of Elizabeth Wheeler, deceased, an order of sale of real estate was made.

Considerable skill was exhibited on Main street last evening by a young horseman. She rode without a saddle, and kept the horse on a full gallop.

There are sixty-five cases of unlawful cohabitation, awaiting the action of the Grand Jury, which will be impaneled next Thursday.

Jack Hessir, the saloon keeper who was tried in the Police Court yesterday for selling liquor on Sunday, was placed under $500 bonds to appear at 2 p. m. to-day.

Benjamin A. McBride, convicted of murder in the second degree for the killing of Doc Speed at Fillmore, will be sentenced by Judge Henderson to-morrow at Provo.

The four boxes which were auctioned off by C. R. Barratt yesterday, to defray T. B. Siemsen's indebtedness to him, brought from $15 to $30 each. The contents were not known until after the sale.

The game of billiards between Josh Arthur and Josh Davis resulted in a victory for the latter. Arthur's run was about one-half what it was on the evening of the last match.

The minor practice at the Opera House last evening with the orchestra was successful in every respect. Those who miss the Paper Carnival on Tuesday next will miss a great treat.

The Democrat has received a letter from Mrs. Brown, dated at Newark, N. J. The lady states that she will not return to Utah for some time, as her sister and brother-in-law are both dangerously ill, and she cannot leave them in their present condition.

A Kindergarten school will be opened at the corner of Main and Fifth South Streets on Monday next. This will be the first out and out Kindergarten established here, and with two proficient lady teachers it promises to be a pronounced success.

Joe Ashton was snatched in by the police last evening for using profane language and drunkenness; Mike Castello for stealing Louis Caldwell's watch and $8 in cash; Louis Caldwell for threatening to shoot E. Tufts, and John Boyen for disturbing the peace in the Eureka saloon.

Mr. E. L. T. Harrison has for some time been engaged on a drawing of the city, side of the Logan Temple. He is making it for a steel engraving for publication. He says that the Temple raised on an eminence overlooking the city and valley will present a grand appearance.

At Prof. Younger's dancing entertainment this week, Corrie Simpson, son of Dr. Simpson, made a ten-strike in dancing the fisher's hornpipe. Although he had only attended the academy one term his performance would compare favorably with that of any professional. He was the only pupil complimented with an encore.

T. Malloy, of Malloy & Paul's livery stable, left for Ogden this morning to meet a party of horsemen and race horses from Butte, Montana. They intend making the Rocky Mountain circuit. Mr. Malloy has succeeded in getting special rates for race men during the spring meeting, on the D. & R. G. and U. P. railroads, and expects soon to have similar arrangements made with the other railroad companies.

A number of gentlemen who are down from Bingham say that the Will Robinson, who shot him on Wednesday morning, is not the Will Robinson described in yesterday's Democrat. They say that the shooter is a tin horn gambler of the worst kind, who has never done an hour's honest work since he went to the camp. On this assertion the Democrat takes back its laudatory remarks and is glad to learn that it was not the Will Robinson so well known here.

Judge Henderson, last week at Provo, refused to naturalize Cyrus R. Young because he acknowledged that he was a believer in polygamy—that he believed it to be a law of God, and that he preached it as such in expounding the Gospel as a member of the Seventies. His answers to the interrogatories of the Court indicated clearly that the applicant was not so attached to "the principles of the Constitution and the laws of the United States" as to entitle him to citizenship.

PERSONAL.

C. V. Riley, of Washington, D. C., is a guest at the Continental.

L. S. Wood, mayor of Springfield, and his son G. H. Wood are stopping at the Clift House.

Harry Levy and wife, of Alaska, are guests at the Clift House. M. L. is an old time Salt Lake.

John W. Pike, official reporter for the First District Court, arrived in town from Provo this forenoon.

A reception in honor of Miss Kate Field, will be given by the Woman's Relief Corps at the Grand Army Hall at 3 p. m., to-morrow.

Edward F. Adams, of San Francisco, is stopping at the Continental. Mr. A. is here for the purpose of introducing some new school books.

Mr. A. M. Nichols, of Grass Valley, Gardfield county, is spending a few days in this city. Mr. Nichols composes one-sixth of the total male population of his county.

Mr. S. W. Eccles, formerly general freight and passenger agent for the D. & R. G. in this city, but now the San Francisco agent of the U. P. road, arrived in town to-day for a short visit. Mr. Eccles will be warmly welcomed by his many friends here, who have missed him greatly since his departure.

THE QUEEN RECEIVED.

Her Majesty Kapiolani and Suite Arrive at the Depot and are Given an Ovation.

People Pass Through the Cars and Shake the Royal Hand—Her Gracious Actions.

Her Majesty, Queen Kapiolani, of the Sandwich Islands, accompanied by her suite of nearly a dozen people, passed through the city on this morning's east-bound D. & R. G. train.

Half an hour before the time for the train to arrive, people began to gather at the depot. Whole schools of young children accompanied by their teachers, flocked upon the platform, and their number swelled by ladies and gentlemen, made a crowd of several hundred people, who stood on the platform when the train pulled up.

The royal party occupied a handsome Pullman sleeper in the middle of the train, and as the cars stopped the crowd gathered around the coach, eager to get a glance at the Queen, a line was formed in the rear car and quite a number passed through the coach to shake the royal hand. The Queen received them all with a gracious smile, in recognition of the courtesies shown her.

While the train was in the depot, Held's band was stationed in the park near the platform and dispensed National airs in a creditable manner.

Her Majesty the Queen is a lady of about 50 years of age. She is an agreeable and womanly looking Queen, with the characteristic features of her race. Her Royal Highness the Princess Lilinoakalani, a sister of the King, is somewhat older than the Queen, being noticeable for her snowy white hair.

General J. O. Dominio, is a handsome and agreeable man, only about 35 years of age, tall, and stout, and with a decidedly possessing manner. His Excellency, C. P. Ianke, is an old and slender man, with a pleasant manner.

Colonel J. H. Boyd, aide-de-camp to General Dominio, is a man of about 30, stout and well formed, wearing a uniform similar to that worn in the United States navy. Besides these, there are several maids and servants, about whom there is nothing notable.

Princess Lilinoakalani, General Dominio and Colonel Boyd speak English perfectly well, but the Queen does not possess this accomplishment.

When asked for information about the party by our reporter, Colonel Boyd very kindly wrote the names of the suite in a bold American business hand, and was otherwise courteous.

As the train pulled out of the depot the band played "Yankee Doodle" and Her Majesty waived her handkerchief from the car window to the crowd on the platform.

The Queen expressed herself as much pleased with what she had seen of our country, and particularly delighted with the unexpected reception she received here. It is her intention to stop over in this city on her return across the continent.

A number of Mormon dignitaries went to Ogden this morning and rode back to the city with the party. Among these were Mayor Armstrong, Delegate Caines, the Board of Aldermen and many others.

A PAIR OF QUEENS.

A Widower Marries the Two Widows of One Man.

Last evening Deputies Franks, Sprague and Cannon arrested Joseph C. Parry, who lives over Jordan, in the happy possession of a double love.

A peculiarity of this case is that the defendant's wives both bear the same name, Mullender, and he explained this by saying that they were both the widows of a Mr. Mullender when he married them. He also was a widower at the time he took upon himself the care of these two orphan girls.

The examination was a very simple one, including only the testimony of one witness.

ELLEN PARRY
Was called and said: I am 29 years of age; my maiden name was Wright; I was married before to Joseph Mullender; he is now dead; I married Joseph Parry eight years ago; I live at Brighton; Jane lives there also; my husband lives in the same house with me; there are four rooms in the house; Jane has two and I have two; we both married Parry on the same day; Jane was married first; my rooms are connected with Jane's by doors but the doors are fastened. Excused.

Judge McKay informed the defendant that he would be held to await the action of the Grand Jury. Parry's bonds were fixed at $1,000 and those of his wives at $200 each.

nicely in singing a pretty ballad. Dave Gill's cornet solo was a very neat performance. The humorous reading was a capital thing, but altogether too lengthy for the occasion. Perhaps the most pleasing feature of the programme was the duet of Mr. and Miss Hillstead. The lady has a pretty, refreshing vocal expression, thoroughly enjoyed by the audience. The presence of the Chief Templar of San Francisco was a surprise to the lodge. His short address was very pleasing to the assembly, who learned from it that his city is second to but one other on earth in crime. Mr. John Paul's temperance song was very acceptable. The balance of the performers acquitted themselves creditably. Mr. Folsom dismissed the audience in a few well-chosen remarks, and the people retired feeling that the evening had been well and profitably spent.

ROBINSON BOUND OVER.

His Preliminary Examination Will be Held on Monday.

Will Robinson, the man who did the shooting at Bingham day before yesterday, was brought in by Sheriff Burt last evening and lodged in the County Jail.

This morning he appeared before Commissioner McKay, for an examination of the complaint made by James Johnston, charging him with assault with intent to kill. Owing to the fact that the witnesses were not subpoenaed, and consequently had not returned to Bingham, the examination was set for Monday next, and the defendant placed under $300 bonds, to appear on that date.

Mrs. J. P. Hickman, (a sister to the defendant) went on his bonds. It is a question in the minds of Mr. Dickinson, and others, whether or not the defendant can be caught upon a second charge for the same offense, before the former has been tried, and it is more than likely, it will be found contrary to law, and the case dismissed from Mr. McKay's Court.

Robinson was placed under $2,500 by the constable at Bingham to appear before the Grand Jury on the charge of shooting Hair. The affair having turned out to be less serious than was at first expected, the bonds will probably be fixed at a moderate figure.

Errata.

The following is self-explanatory: Editor Democrat—In my article in Wednesday's issue you made me say "anti-Mormon and anti-Christian fungus" for "anti-American," etc. Also, "from each separate case" for "for each separate case." You will do me a kindness by correcting your local columns, even though it be late.
